

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
Alabama	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will not allow transfer into their state when using a California license for the basis of transfer.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
Alaska	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Arizona	Pass the MPJE.	Will accept if received by passing the NAPLEX or 5-part license exams after June 1, 1981	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
Arkansas	Must be licensed for at least 6 months. Pass Non-MPJE Law Examination.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
California	Must have passed the NAPLEX after January 1, 2004. Pass Non-MPJE Law Examination.	No conditions apply.		No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
Colorado	Must be licensed for at least one year. Pass the MPJE prior to submitting a license transfer application.	Will accept license transfer those individuals who were licensed in Florida prior to that state using the NAPLEX examination. It is assumed that the applicant took the Florida state specific examination when they were first licensed.	Will accept license transfer those individuals who were licensed in California prior to that state using the NAPLEX examination. It is assumed that the applicant took the California state specific examination when they were first licensed.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Connecticut	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
Delaware	Pass the MPJE.	The Board will accept a Florida license for basis of transfer, but will also require that the applicant adhere to passing a nationally recognized exam.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
District of Columbia	Pass the MPJE and DC Examination.	No conditions apply.	Contact licensing Board.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
Florida	Passed a nationally recognized exam. Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Georgia	Pass the MPJE and a practical examination.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
Hawaii	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Idaho		No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Illinois	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
Indiana	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Iowa	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
Kansas	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Kentucky	Pass the MPJE prior to submitting a license transfer application.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in Florida after June 26, 1979.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Louisiana	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
Maine	Pass the MPJE prior to submitting a license transfer application.	Will accept a Florida license for basis of transfer, but also require that the applicant adhere to the same 12-year rule that Florida requires.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Maryland	Must have 520 hours of active practice after graduation. Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Massachusetts	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	No conditions apply.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Michigan	Pass the MPJE prior to submitting a license transfer application.	No conditions apply.	Contact licensing Board.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
Minnesota	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	No conditions apply.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Mississippi	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Missouri	Must have completed an internship similar to that required by the Missouri Board. Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Montana	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
Nebraska	Pass the MPJE prior to submitting a license transfer application.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Nevada	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
New Hampshire	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
New Jersey	Must have 1,500 active practice hours within two years prior to licensure transfer. Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	No conditions apply.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
New Mexico	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
New York	Must be licensed for at least one year as well as have at least one year of active practice as a pharmacist. Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004. The Board will also accept licensure transfer applicants licensed in California prior to Jan 1, 2004 but will require applicants to take and pass both the NAPLEX and MPJE.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
North Carolina	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
North Dakota	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Ohio	Standards at the discretion of the Board.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Oklahoma	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	Contact licensing board.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
Oregon	Must be licensed for one year. The Board may grant permission to applicants licensed less than one year if they are working in an approved residency program. Pass the MPJE prior to submitting a license transfer application.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
Pennsylvania	Pass the MPJE, unless licensed prior to January 26, 1983, or have taken the Federal Drug Law Examination for the license being used as the basis for transfer.	Will allow Florida pharmacists licensed by examination to reciprocate if the NAPLEX or NABPLEX was taken after June 26, 1979	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Puerto Rico	Pass Non-MPJE Law Examination.	No conditions apply.	Contact licensing board.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Rhode Island	Pass the MPJE prior to submitting a license transfer application.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
South Carolina	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
South Dakota	Must be licensed for one year. Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
Tennessee	Must be licensed for one year. Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Texas	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Utah	Pass the MPJE prior to submitting a license transfer application.	No conditions apply.	No conditions apply.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Vermont	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
Virginia	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Washington	Pass the MPJE.	Board will accept licensure transfer from Florida if applicant took and passed NAPLEX after January 1, 2001.	No conditions apply.	Yes. The Board will require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination.
West Virginia	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	No conditions apply.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.
Wisconsin	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.

State Restrictions for Licensure Transfer

State	Requirements that May Apply When Transferring	Using a Florida License for Basis of Transfer	Using a California License for Basis of Transfer	Licensure by Examination Required for the Basis of Transfer
Wyoming	Pass the MPJE.	No conditions apply.	The Board will accept licensure transfer of pharmacists licensed in California after January 1, 2004.	No. The Board will not require license transfer applicants to maintain their license by original examination, but the license transfer applicant must have a license in good standing from a member board and transferred their license through the NABP Clearinghouse after.