Regulating Technology to Support Innovation in the Protection of Public Health and the Well-Being of Health Care Personnel

Activity Overview

As the rapid emergence and adoption of new technologies are transforming the health care industry, including pharmacy, regulators must grapple with protecting public health and the well-being of health care personnel. Participants will learn about how NABP Foundation's Research and Innovation Institute provides an environment to evaluate relevant technologies; shares digital health concepts and resources; and serves as an impartial connector and facilitator between the boards of pharmacy, regulated entities, and third parties.

In addition, participants will learn how the Institute provides a space for new ideas and proof of concept projects to be tested in a neutral setting, how the Institute operates, and how the Federation of State Medical Boards (FSMB) and the National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN) handle innovation and the implementation of new technologies.

This home study webinar is a recording of the live activity that was held on May 14, 2025, and was sponsored by CVS Health.
